

Release The Stars

Rufus Wainwright

Why do you keep all your stars in from your studio on Melrose A venue?

You've lost all your assets ?? in life-long contracts to you
Didn't you know that old Hollywood is over?

Oh, can't you see all the good that celebrity can do for those in the dark?

Yes of course, I am speaking in metaphors for something more in your heart

Didn't you know that old Hollywood is over?

So why not just release the gates and let them all come out?

Remember that without them there would be no Paramount

No paramount need to hold on to what isn't yours

Release the stars

The more that you fight, then the more they will scrutinize and realize just your size

And believe me, you are no match for the public that has seen t he whites of your eyes

Didn't you know that old Hollywood is over?

Old Hollywood is over

So why not just release the gates and let them all come out?

Remember that without them there would be no Paramount

No paramount need to hold on to what isn't yours

Release the stars

Release the stars, release your love, release the stars

Release your love, 'cause Hollywood is over

Why do you keep all your stars in from your studio on Melrose A venue?
