

Whoever's Thrilling You (Is Killing Me)

Rufus

I don't want see you tomorrow
If I can't see you today
You've been puttin' me off for so long
I got the feelin' something's wrong

Whoever is thrilling you is killing me

I haven't seen you in so long
Right now your just a voice on my telephone
You say you'd see me tomorrow
But my tomorrow's are filled with sorrow

Whoever is thrilling you is killing me

Put all my faith in you
You see the girls growin' numb
I don't even know where you're calling from
You got me in a state of confusion
I need a love transfusion

Whoever is thrilling you is killing me
