

Choke On It

Ruiner

Respect's given where it's fucking due.
And I'll tip my hat for what you have done.
But that doesn't mean I have to give a shit about your opinions

You've never walked a step in my shoes.
I'll stick my foot in my mouth every chance I get.
I fumble with words, a little self conscience, sometimes a tad bit awkward.
I try to get my point across, ain't planning on changing minds.
My life's an open book, what about you?

I'll find out... the hard way that I'm not always right.
Take the best shots from people who remain nameless.
Not sorry for my intentions and I'll do what I fucking please..

Call me out - I don't give a fuck - You're not better than me!
