

I'm Out

Ruiner

Those heavy thoughts I let linger when the sun goes down.

I don't need this shit anymore.

I can finally see it's over my desire to hold on

To old pictures and thoughts about crush's I can not relive.

Looks like I am on my way out,

It's been a long time coming.

Looks like you can bond to someone else's failures.

You can blame me if you want.

You can hate me if you want

I have nothing more to give.

I have nothing more to say.

I'm gone

Blame me judge me use me

Blame me judge me hate me
