

Am I Forgiven

Rumer

I lost my heart
I didn't know what to do
I was so caught in misunderstanding
I took it all out on you
Cause I didn't like the world
(I didn't like the world)
I didn't like the world

I lost my heart
I sat on my window and looked out and watched the rain wash down the street
Oh will the sun rise
Like the birds that fly over rising up through the trees
Will you be there for me?
(Will you be there for me?)
Will you belong to me?
(Will you belong to me?)

Am I forgiven?
Am I forgiven?
Am I forgiven?

Cause I didn't like the world
(I didn't like the world)
I didn't like the world

If I should let you go
There would be nothing
And silently
love would be sown
And I could begin again
Can we begin again?

Am I forgiven?
Am I forgiven?
Am I forgiven?
Am I forgiven?

Cause I didn't like the world...

Ooh would you help me to find my way back to this heart
When I'm tired and life's heavy on me?

Cause I didn't like the world...

Ooh would you help me to find my way back to this heart
When I'm tired and life's heavy on me?
