

Healer

Rumer

Sometimes I feel so temporary
Just like these stars
Did somebody say
They might not even be there anyway
I lie awake
And think of all the time it might take to reach them
Where did you go
It's always I don't know, I don't know

Carry me over
If you're a healer
Cause I don't know how long
I'm gonna be here
Tear me down
Could you save my soul?
Give me a reason to carry on

Sometimes I feel so temporary
Just like those summer days
If I close my eyes
I can hear you laughing
And time is a friend
When broken hearts are trying to mend like this one
If I close my eyes
I can feel you're with me

Carry me over
If you're a healer
Cause I don't know how long
I'm gonna be here
Tear me down
If you can spare my soul
Give me a reason to carry on
Carry on
