Your words they never spoke so clear to me The way they did that day I always dreamed we'd be forever I always thought it'd be ok I took for granted all you gave me I never thought you'd go away Was this not love that we were sharing I thought love never went away Say goodbye to memories Cause I have said so long Say goodbye to all our dreams It's time now to I see now this is where our story ends So just move on I'm told Today I loved someone for three years Tomorrow learn to just let go To have your best friend always be there Then one day to see her go My world is falling all around me And girl your all I know Say goodbye to memories Cause I have said so long Say goodbye to all our dreams It's time now to move on And on and on I've tried to Let go My mind can not forget you You're all I know Say goodbye to memories Cause I have said so long Say goodbye to all our dreams It's time now to move on
