

This Day of Change

Run Kid Run

Back up lets stop and start again
The words I said now have new meaning
You have changed the ways I once new

Your love it found this heart of mine
Showed me you're real and that you're with me
And now I'm growing stronger in you

Promises I found in you along the way
Giving all to something new couldn't be the same

Today's the day I'm coming around
No more wasting time
On things that won't be found at all

A way of faith I once was told
I'm finally finding on my own
And now I'm seeing for the first time

A world thats filled with treasures stored
I've traded in for something more
And now I'm living with a new hope

Promises I found in you along the way
Giving all to something new couldn't be the same

Today's the day I'm coming around
No more wasting time
On things that won't be found at all

I have lost myself in you
And I'll keep holding on, holding on

Today's the day I'm coming around
No more wasting time
On things that won't be found at all

I'm coming around
