Eyes Of Kali

Runemagick

Your cold eyes
In a world of lies
Freezing my steps
In the halls of the dead

Walking the path of the dying souls Your eyes are lurking through the eternal dark You can't capture my soul in your cage You can't find the heart of darkness

Eyes of Kali Your eyes are almost killing me Eyes of Kali But I am one with the dark

So your funeral will come first

Your dying eyes
In your world in nothingness
Freezing your own soul
In the halls of tragedy

Walking the path of your own death Your king of apathy can't give you life You have captured your own soul You will never be one with the heart of darkness

Eyes of Kali Your eyes will never kill me Eyes of Kali I am one with the dark
