

History her story

Runner Runner

Send me a postcard from anywhere
I wanna know just what you're doing
Wanna know just where you've been
For better or for worse
I wanna know you're doing fine
From now until forever
Even thou you wont be mine

It's too bad there's two sides to her story

Still chasing
The memories
The way that it used to be
As we watched the setting sun
In the days when we were one
When I look back
How we changed
I think about it everyday
Forget about the way

She turns HISTORY into HER STORY

It's been a hot minute
Since I have seen your face
Wouldn't give up without a fight
You said you needed space
Now I'm watching those teardrops
Roll down your precious skin
Sail away to the beginning
If I could find where to begin

This feels like there's two sides to her story

Still chasing
The memories
The way that it used to be
As we watched the setting sun
In the days when we were one
When I look back
How we changed
I think about it everyday
Forget about the way

She turns HISTORY into HER STORY

That's not what I said
You twist the words inside your head
That's not what said
Can you hear me now?

Still chasing
The memories
The way that it used to be
As we watched the setting sun
In the days when we were one
When I look back
How we changed

I think about it everyday
Forget about the way
