

Hold on

Runner Runner

You and me
Are tangled up conversation
I can see that you're scared
(That you're scared)

We can never look back
Never get so far away
'Cause I can feel it
No more waiting
Baby, the world is ours tonight

If we hold on
Dream on, stay strong
This is not the end
The only thing that matters now
Is what's inside your heart
If we hold on
Hold on

Far away
It's hard for me to say I'm sorry
But I can change where I am

We can never look back
Never get so far away
'Cause I can feel it
No more waiting
Baby, the world is ours tonight

If we hold on
Dream on, stay strong
This is not the end
The only thing that matters now
Is what's inside your heart
If we hold on

Every step that we take
Every mark that we break
We're never giving up now

All that matters now
All that matters
Is what you feel
All that matters now
All that matters now

If we hold on
Dream on, stay strong
This is not the end
The only thing that matters now
Is what's inside your heart
If we hold on

(If we hold on)
Every step that we take
We're never giving up now (4x)
