

So Obvious

Runner Runner

Go! Let's go, go! Go! Let's go, go!
I need you here, but you're always so far away
I call you up, but you know it's just never the same
'Cause being closer to you is my sweetest escape
It's all I needed
I need you here, but you're always so far away

This is our night
The look in your eyes says we can go all the way
I'm losing my mind, broken inside
I want you to take my breath away
It's obvious that my heart beats for you (Beats for you, beats for you)

Just might go tonight
We're so close tonight
I need you here, but you're out there on your own
Do you still look like the pictures in my telephone?
Hiding out in your room, we could be alone
Laughing out loud

You need me here, but I'm always so far away
This is our night
The look in your eyes says we can go all the way
I'm losing my mind, broken inside
I want you to take my breath away
It's obvious that my heart beats for you (Beats for you, beats for you)
It's obvious that my heart beats for you (Beats for you, beats for you)

Just might go tonight
We're so close tonight
Just let go tonight
We're so close tonight
This is our night, look in my eyes
We can go all the way
I'm losing my mind, broken inside, and take my breath away

This is our night
The look in your eyes says we can go all the way
I'm losing my mind, broken inside
I want you to take my breath away
