

Bones to Ashes

Running Wild

Angel of death is walking through the ice-cold air to take the witches remains, he comes to take his share Hangman has done his work, destroying their dirty minds
Loyal to the church to torture and to bind Murder and grinding, searching and finding a victim to kill

Oppression and torment, killing to defend their faith
Bones to ashes, black witches are blown to dust
Bone to ashes, torment's for religious lust
Bones to ashes, black witches are blown to dust
Bone to ashes, torment's for religious lust
Tormenter's raising his torch into the sky to burn the convicted witch who is condemned to die
He transmutes her body to dust to free her soul
Fire destroys her flesh, no bell for her which tolls Murder and grinding, searching and finding a victim to
kill

Oppression and torment, killing to defend their faith
Bones to ashes, black witches are blown to dust
Bone to ashes, torment's for religious lust
Bones to ashes, black witches are blown to dust
Bone to ashes, torment's for religious lust
Pest and damnation to those who are delude
Of too much blood and death they are accused
Too much tombs and tiger, a treason to all mankind
Fuck these bastards who are blind
Murder and grinding, searching and finding a victim to
kill

Oppression and torment, killing to defend their faith
Bones to ashes, black witches are blown to dust
Bone to ashes, torment's for religious lust
Bones to ashes, black witches are blown to dust
Bone to ashes, torment's for religious lust
