

Draw the Line

Running Wild

Glowing fire deep in your heart
Cry of freedom ready to start
Times of darkness pushing the line
Take a stand now right here on time
These words on the wind
Revolution's back again
This time, right time
Draw the line
Draw the line
When the time is right!
Classify you and push you around
Kicking's started when you're down on the ground
No more self-doubt to hold you down
No more pushing when yo're standing your ground
[Chorus]
