Fire and Thunder

Running Wild

Enchanted times, the decade of falling But no one thinks of catastrophe Seductive voice of death is calling The fall of man is just plain to see The mighty reign of devastation Is raging wild all trough the land Sowing the winds of desperation A deadly breeze by the Serpents hand

Darkest night, pride and hate Raging force, the fate

Fire & Thunder, war & pain
Fire & Thunder, the devil's reign

The lost child is breathing badness Building bombs just to serve his pride Technological wings of madness Could bring the end, eternal night

Darkest night, pride and hate Raging force, the fate

Fire & Thunder, war & pain
Fire & Thunder, the devil's reign

The souls melt in the fire distress The world's caught in a deadly trance The flames of hell their reign is endless No way out, no more second chance

Darkest night, pride and hate Raging force, the wings of fate

Fire & Thunder, war & pain
Fire & Thunder, the devil's reign
Fire & Thunder, the final fight
Fire & Thunder, eternal night
