Since all time began the holy council guards the light
They saw dawn of man, made by gods to serve their pride
Their slave, he fell from grace, he became the renegade But evilness took place, 'cause a darkened force lurked in the shade

Silent wings of black, shadowed all the good at heart
The snake on the attack, shot to bite right off the dark
The poison in their vein, freezed their soul, their heart, their mind

So they praised the evil's name, the beast to serve, the world to grind

Time of all eternity, can never change the final destiny
The purified that stood the fight, will be saved to see the wor ld of light

The Rivalry, since eternity, the final fight the blackened worl d to free

Lost in hate, determined fate, all evil's damned to walk the fi ery gate

The time is right at hand, to see the truth behind the lie Decade of evils end, the poisened heart is doomed to die The chosen one is here, they're in a deadly fix He is the one they fear, cause he is up to all their tricks

Time of all eternity, can never change the final destiny
ld of light
