

I'll Keep Coming Home

Runrig

When I'm away please take good care of my heart. And when I'm gone say a prayer for love.
'Cause there's cities and clouds in my eyes. The empty streets and the raining nights. Wherever the highway unwinds I'll keep coming home. Love on a wire.
Strangers walk out on the town.
Long distance words. Outside leave the night to the young.
Cause its touchdowns runways and roads. The bright lights the silver and gold. Wherever the moment goes cold I'll keep coming home. I'll keep coming home to you.
