

Born Naked

RuPaul

Who you waitin' for, another savior
Always lookin' but you never find, never find
Wakin' up from another night gone
Always lookin' but you never find, never find
Goin' down town, you know where ya goin'
Throw ya top down like ya know where ya goin'
Tell me one thing
Do you like where ya goin'?'
Runnin' all the red lights

And I said, Oooh,
Who do you think you are?
Who do you think you are?
I'm tellin' the truth now
We're all born naked and the rest is drag
Who, who do you think you are?
Who do you think you are?
I'm tellin' the truth now
We're all born naked and the rest is drag

A lonely highway, you drove the wrong way
Always chasin' down a fantasy, a fantasy
A sexy muscle car under the radar
Always lookin' but ya never see, never see

Goin' down town, you know where ya goin'
Throw ya top down like ya know where ya goin'
Tell me one thing
Do you like where ya goin'?'
Ignorin' all of the signs

And I said, Oooh,
Who do you think you are?
Who do you think you are?
I'm tellin' the truth now
We're all born naked and the rest is drag
Who, who do you think you are?
Who do you think you are?
I'm tellin' the truth now
We're all born naked and the rest is drag

I'll say it again
It's never been the clothes that make the man
Nothin' can
Leave all ya baggage behind

And I said, Oooh
Who do you think you are?
Who do you think you are?
I'm tellin' the truth now
We're all born naked and the rest is drag
Who, who do you think you are?
Who do you think you are?
I'm tellin' the truth now
We're all born naked and the rest is drag
Who do you think you are?
Who do you think you are?

I'm tellin' the truth now
We're all born naked and the rest is drag
I'm tellin' the truth now
I'm tellin' the truth now
We're all born naked and the rest is drag

(...Talkin' 'bout you are born naked and the rest is drags, sheeeit!...)
