

I Need More

RuPaul

Don't think baby I'll be a fool for you
Don't think you can keep doing what you do to me
Boy, I ain't happy with the love you give, no, no, no

I need more
Baby, I ain't too hard to please, why can't you give me what I need?
I need more

So spare me your complaining 'cause you're livin up in my world
Where you get off tellin' me how I'm supposed to live
