Modern Love [echo]

As I lay down
What I know
Turning pages
Never told

All align with a modern love
Can't deny what the future was
Take me back to a modern love
Take me back, take me back there

All align with a modern love
Can't deny what the future holds
Take me back to a modern love
Take me back, take me back there

Take me back, take me back, take me back there [x4]

Silver bleeding
Rivers flow
Going under
I'm letting go

All align with a modern love
Can't deny what the future was
Take me back to a modern love
Take me back, take me back there

All align with a modern love
Can't deny what the future was
Take me back to a modern love
Take me back, take me back there

Take me back, take me back, take me back there [x4]

[Spoken:]
I found myself in situations where I was chasing someone who was chasing someone else... and that someone else actually had their eyes on a completely different person...
And it's really sad...
It's like not wanting to belong to a club that would have you as a member... and I don't wanna live like that

All align with a modern love
Can't deny what the future was
Take me back to a modern love
Take me back, take me back there

All align with a modern love
Can't deny what the future was
Take me back to a modern love
Take me back, take me back there

Take me back, take me back, take me back there [x4]
