

Sister Brother

RuPaul

Give your sister what she needs now
Now, now, now
Now, now, now
Ah, ah, ah

Some need love and some need truth
Some need time to heal the wounds
(So give your brother what he needs now)
Some need love and some need truth
Some need time to heal the wounds
(So give your sister what she needs now)

Whenever you need me
You know I'll come running
Whenever you need me
I'll be around
Whenever you want me
You know I'll come running
Whenever you need me
I'll be around

My brother!
My sister!
My brother!
My sister!
Brother!
Sister!
Brother!
Sister!
Brother!
Sister!

So give your sister what she needs now
Now, now, now
Now, now, now
Ah, ah, ah, ah, ah, ah

Some need love and some need truth
Some need time to heal the wounds
(So give your brother what he needs now)
Some need love and some need truth
Some need time to heal the wounds
(So give your sister what she needs now)

My brother!
My sister!
My brother!
(So give your sister what she needs now!)
