

Won't Say Goodbye

Rush Of Fools

I won't say goodbye
Lately, I've been feeling suffocated
Doubting what I say that I believe in
All my dreams are fading with the setting sun
I don't know why, I can't let them die

I won't say goodbye, tonight
'cause I don't wanna leave until my dreams collide
With life, I'm still fighting
And even though I'm barely breathing
I can feel that my heart's still beating
Holding on tonight, I won't say goodbye

Sometimes, waiting seems to be the hardest
Afraid that I will give in to giving up
Could I ever even see the break of day
I can't let this die

I won't say goodbye, tonight
'cause I don't wanna leave until my dreams collide
With life, I'm still fighting
And even though I'm barely breathing
I can feel that my heart's still beating
Holding on tonight, I won't say goodbye

I won't say goodbye
I wont say goodbye
I wont say goodbye, tonight
'cause I don't wanna leave until my dreams collide
With life
I won't say goodbye, tonight
'cause I don't wanna leave until my dreams collide
With life
I'm still fighting
And even though I'm barely breathing
I can feel that my heart's still beating
Holding on tonight
Holding on tonight
I'm holding on tonight
I won't say goodbye
