

Heart on Fire

Ruslana

No, I need to understand why, why
All I am thinking of is you, why
No, I need to get it, tell me why, why
You are the man I'm running to, why

Hey, hey, hey

Oh I know I'm getting wild
When you look at me like that
You have put my heart on fire
And it makes me going mad

'Cause I know I'm getting wild
When you're touching me like that
You have put my heart on fire
You're the one I can't forget, hey

('Cause my heart) On fire!
(Cause my heart) Just fire!

Nay na na na na na na ney na na why, why
Nay na na na na na na ney na na why, why

We are as fire burning bright, fire
You are the day and I'm the night, fire
I am the dark and you're the light, fire
You fight to live, I live to fight, fire

Hey, hey, hey

Oh I know I'm getting wild
When you look at me like that
You have put my heart on fire
And it makes me going mad

'Cause I know I'm getting wild
When you're touching me like that
You have put my heart on fire
You're the one I can't forget, hey

Hey

('Cause my heart) On fire!
(Cause my heart) Just fire, just fire, just fire!

Hey, hey, hey, hey, hey, hey

Oh I know I'm getting wild
When you look at me like that
You have put my heart on fire
And it makes me going mad

'Cause I know I'm getting wild
When you're touching me like that
You have put my heart on fire

Hey, hey, hey

Oh I know I'm getting wild
When you look at me like that
You have put my heart on fire
And it makes me going mad

'Cause I know I'm getting wild
When you're touching me like that
You have put my heart on fire
You're the one I can't forget, hey
One I can't forget, hey

Just fire!
