I Cry

When peace cannot be found and sleep won't visit me tonight a restless mind that I can't tame how off the floor I call Your name sign of silence and the tears begin to fall I Cry and You're the one who hears me calling I fall so easily but You're there to catch me say the words that heal me I'm safe when I'm with You You touch my eyes and I can see Oh the comfort that You bring when nothing else can reach inside sympathetic friends are all around their soothing words fall to the ground in silence I feel You here with me I Cry and You're the one who hears me calling I fall so easily but You're there to catch me say the words that heal me I'm safe when I'm with You You touch my eyes and I can see I Cry and You're the one who hears me calling I fall so easily but You're there to catch me say the words that heal me I'm safe when I'm with You You touch my eyes and I can see
