Braver Soldier

Russian Red

When a woman loves a man all she does is shout When a woman loves a man all she is, is loud

Oh won't she, oh won't she, oh won't she Be braver and solid and stranger to me?

When a woman loves a man there's no lousy crowd When a woman loves a man, well there's no hiding proud.

Oh won't she, oh won't she, oh won't she Be braver and solid and stranger to him?

are they going to die? well we're gonna to die Some day and so we'll be standing up and holding hands Swearing and dancing in shiny, purple, shiny fields And so it is...

I ain't going to die 'cause I've changed my mind.
