

Kiss My Elbow

Russian Red

And every five minutes I look at the door
and I see you naked.
And there's a question that comes up to my mind
I wonder whether you are blind.

But if I try to find, it'd be the same old story time after time.
Oh, oh, show me your eyes, please do
Oh baby, show me your eyes.

And every five minutes I look at the door,
and there you are with your clothes on, you changed this time
now you are kissing my elbow, is that how you say it?
I really have doubts and questions about.

But if I try to find, it'd be the same old story, story, story...
Oh, oh, show me your eyes, please do
Oh baby, show me your eyes.
