

Give You The Grace

Rusted Root

Whatever it is you want
I don't care about that
But I'll give it to grace
To fall down on your face.

Sentimental Rules here's your fine
All to mend this heart
All to mend this heart

Cuz no one knows you in this town,
Noo you wont be, hanging around
O girl. All to Mend this heart
All to mend this heart

No more pity for the love that's fallen
The tiger has risen to raise the wanted
Lines in the sand don't mean nothing at all.

It's all been great it all looks good
Now I'm gonna dance like I should.
Oh girl where did you come from

Cuz no one knows you in this town
No you wont be
Hanging around.

All to mend this heart
We go

Since your love has been torn girl
Black magic thorns
And flowery walls and girl this is our last dance

It's all been great, It all looks good
Now I'm gonna dance like I should have done
Such a long time ago
