

To obtain the space I need
I lock myself in shelter in the bush thick and thorned,
In the bush thick and thorned,
With the infinite being my god,
Walking with the great and vast with no limits in my head,
No limits in my head, as I circle the human,
Skull birds, in existing lapse of time,
I am pushing the morning forward the choice is yours and mine

As we all go now, we go

Walking with my arms,
At my past, I'll walk until I follow, only you, only you,
I'll wake up and I'll dream of my past I'll wake up and I'll sit down here with you, only you
As I circle the human, skull birds,
In existing lapse of time,
I am pushing the morning forward the choice is yours and mine,
As we all go now, We go

Well I'll fly down, pick myself
With eagle eye, and my love will surely be,
My love will surely be
