RX Bandits

She says she's gonna come over tonight look like a ghost sound like a whisper shivering down my spine I'm just a traveling soul, say you'd never leave me alone, tell me you need me so tonight
She come creeping up slow I got no place, no place to go but now I'm feeling like I fell for you oh baby, no don't you sell it Story's always different, no matter who's telling it, now I'm feeling like I fell for you

Apparition

I know she lurking the streets tonight, sound like silence, slink like a drifter
'tween the darkness & the flickering light She's just a wandering soul, oh I can't let it go, tell me it isn't so tonight

I swear I heard something sneaking through my corridor, memories float like specters, keeps on haunting me evermore
