

To Our Unborn Daughters

RX Bandits

Written for you these words, the love of my life the world is yours to discover with brand new eyes you're no player in a game of roles assigned what you possess has no barter, no structure, no insurmountable walls, only barriers of perception

Don't you ever be afraid of all of your beauty you can move without his words or a grant of submission Oh they try to smother you're righteous ambition and stifle your loving grace they tell you its a little girl's place to alter your convictions no don't you wait...

Put it down, rhetoric Shake it out now baby

They said you want it they said you need it but you don't need it anymore (and you never did)

They thrust you their products by making you feel insecure the matriarch was murdered and now woman is a four letter word Put a price on your body to convince you that it's all you're worth they are afraid of the power they lose and the gift of creation so don't you ever listen!
