

What If

RX Bandits

What if I told you
That you're a lovely gal
And I'd adore you
If you'd just show me how- right now
What if I told you
Things that I have inside
Shoulder to cry on
Someone that I confide- right now

I can't see
The life that's left in front of me
So drop me off
I can't do
The things that I was meant to
Just drop me in

What if I told you
That you're a stupid whore
And I want nothing
Your life is such a bore to me
What if I told you
I speak with honesty
You said yourself, girl
Best things in life are free
Right now, right away

I can't see
The life that's left in front of me
So drop me off
I can't do
The things that I was meant to
Just drop me in

Never better, never worse
Never better, never worse
Never better, never worse
Never better, never worse
