

Kindness

Ryan Adams

If you're so kind
Can you let down your hand
Can you let down your hand
If you're so kind
If you're so strong
Can you shelter the weak
Will you listen as the strangers speak
Bring them calm

Kindness don't ask for much
But an open mind
Kindness can cure a broken heart
Honey are you feelin' kind
Do you believe in love
Do you believe in love

If you're so kind
Can you let down your hand
Will you try and understand
When it goes wrong
Days come and gone
And it's been said and been done
I will shelter you with my love
And my forgiveness

Kindness don't ask for much
But an open mind
Kindness can cure a broken heart
Honey are you feelin' kind
Do you believe in love
Do you believe in love

Kindness don't ask for much
But an open mind
Kindness can cure a broken heart
Honey are you feelin' kind
Do you believe in love
Do you believe in love
