Roadhouse Blues

Ryan Bingham

I've been payin' them here roadhouse dues Since I was a young boy Driftin' and a-ramblin' with my old man searchin' 'Round for that West Texas oil

Well, ain't nobody know Where I'm gonna go Well, ain't nobody know, no, no, no This here gypsy road

Straight out them bad lands well, I come a-runnin' on Out of New Mexico Eighteen wheelers and freight trains and pump jacks So high I've rode upon

Well, ain't nobody know Where I'm gonna go Well, ain't nobody know, no, no, no This here gypsy road

Mr Armadillo, don't stand in my way I ain't gonna stick around here I don't know why I can't fly this here ride On out the cosmic cowboy atmosphere

Well, ain't nobody know Where I'm gonna go Well, ain't nobody know, no, no, no This here gypsy road Get down, tell me one more song
