

Don't Try 2 Call Her

Ryan Leslie

Rock with it now R les
You had a special love
Nobody could tell you nothing bout you and your baby
You used to work at love
Now show what made you break down and just get so lazy (don't care anymore)
And that's when things started to break down
You took for granted what ya'll vowed
Then said you were better off alone (rock with it now)
But now you just wishing she come home

You messed up,
Don't try to call her now
If you're love is real time will make it right somehow (don't try)
Don't try to call her now
Give her time to heal

Don't try to rush her back
She got to make a decision to start it over (hey)
She's gonna have to want it bad
Cause I guarantee you
There's been someone right there to hold her(In the meantime)
But no one can replace what you had (nobody nobody)
Let's hope the good things outweigh the bad (you said)
You said you were better off alone
So don't expect her to pick up the phone

You messed up,
Don't try to call her now (don't try to call no)
If you're love is real time will make it right somehow (right somehow, don't try)
Don't try to call her now (not right now, no)
Give her time to heal

If the love is real she'll be back
Just give her time
Don't call her, give her time to her self
(She needs her space)
Don't call her, let her heal herself
(to heal on her own)
Don't call don't call just give her time
Time will make it alright
So don't you call

Don't try to call her now
If you're love is real time will make it right somehow (if your love is real , it will make it right)
Don't try to call her now (don't call right now)
Give her time to heal (give her time let her come back on her own, don't try)

Don't try to call her now
If you're love is real time will make it right somehow
Don't try to call her now
Give her time to heal (give her time to heal)

If the love is real
She'll be back

Just give her time
