Something More

Ryan Malcolm

I don't think that I can tell you what this means to me
But here I am, it's so hard to believe That I'm standing here, that I've come this far
But you always said, have faith in who you are
I wanna take this time to thank you for the love you gave
from this moment, you've got to know

I never wanted something more, and never felt so sure,
'Cause now I've got this chance to be, everything you saw in me
And even more than I ever dreamed before,
As long as you are here with me, I know that I can be something more

Looking back now it's so clear to me,
That you were sent to shape my destiny
 'Cause there were times when I was ready to walk away,
But you gave me strength to face another day
I wanna take this time to thank you for the love you gave
And from this moment, you've got to know

I reaching for the sky, won't let this chance go by I've waited all my life for something more,
And now's the time you're gonna see,
From this moment you've got to know

You make me want to be something more
You make me want to be something more
