

11:59

Ryan Star

Once upon a time, 11:59
In a car on a street, in a town
Solitary eyes were staring back at mine
We couldn't seem to make a sound

Please don't leave
This could be the best time of our lives tonight
You and me, don't let the moment pass by
Put the windows down and drive away

The beat that my heart skipped was stolen by your lips
But I could never call this a cry
It's you I've waited for, like waves upon a shore
When you're crashing into me, we all live what I need

Please don't leave
This could be the best time of our lives tonight
You and me, don't let the moment pass by
Put the windows down and drive

She wears a locket with her name
She waiting for the right one to give it away
She pulls her hair back from her face
She's looking at me as we're flying away

Please don't leave
This could be the best time of our lives tonight
You and me, don't let the moment pass by
Put the windows down and drive away

This could be the best time of our lives, tonight
This could be the best time of our lives
This could be the best time of our lives tonight

Once upon a time, 11:59
In a car on a street, in a town
