

Lullaby Suicide

Ryan Star

And all you've said and done
Has walked me through your kingdom
I'll tell you what I see
I see the difference in everything

Until my mind has gone
Until your colors run
I want to be like you
Perfect in all of the things you do

I wake up and
You have said
I want to be young, I want to be free
Of my head

And sometimes you
Remind me of that
And nothing will take my dreams away

I believe everything I was told
I believe that you never grow old
I would tell you the same today
But I've been given away

I wanna be bad
I wanna be young again
So take my wish and tell me that
I never caught you and I never can
I'll never catch you and I never can

So take my days
Take them away
Take my days and
Take them away

I never wanted you
I never wanted this
I'm ready to live again
Take me away from here
Take me away from here
Take me away from here
