

Psycho Suicidal Girls

Ryan Star

Everyone knows you're wasting my time
So why don't I ask you to leave?
And if you should go, I want you to know
That everything wasn't for free
I'll be charging for time
I had you on the line
We talked about the ends of this world
And now I'm praying for time
So all of you could die
You're psycho suicidal girl

Everyone knows you're wasting my time
So why don't I ask you to leave?
And if you should go, I want you to know
That everything wasn't for me
I was trying to find
An ordinary time
When there was blood on my bathroom floor
So I'm paying the price
And though the sex was nice
You're psycho suicidal girl

And if you should go, I want you to know
That everything wasn't for you, you, you, you
Everyone knows you're wasting my time
Everyone knows, everyone knows
