

Waiting for Love

Ryan Star

I see you all alone
Don't live this on your own
While you run from your home
I'll be waiting for you here
Far away from all your fear

If you're waiting for love
Then I'm waiting for you to see
If you're waiting for love
Then you're waiting for you and me

I'll save you from the pain
Break me and take a name
We all want love and fame
So, I'll be waiting for you here
Taste my blood, I'll taste your tears

If you're waiting for love
Then I'm waiting for you to see
If you're waiting for love
Then you're waiting for you and me

And if you want the best of me
The best of me is here
And if you want the worst of me
The worst of me is here
Some things just don't have to change
Don't have to change, my dear

If you're waiting for love
Then I'm waiting for you to see
If you're waiting for love
Then you're waiting for you and me

If you're waiting for love
Then I'm waiting for you to see
If you're waiting for love
Then you'll wait here for you and me

Then you wait for you and me
Then you wait here for you and me
