

Ransom

Ryan Tedder

I started falling right when i found you now i'm building my world around you but suddenly were on the fence oh oh yea yea, when i painted you in my future all the black and white turn to colour so none of this is making sense, cuz some will make us so afraid its going to give itself away, but everytime you push i break, I LOVE YOU!

but your holding my love for ransom, for ransom its criminal what you get from me.. quit holding my love for ransom, for ransom
i gave it all, but it wont mean a thing unless you can give back to me give it back, give it back to me.. give it back, give it back to meee give it back, give it back, give it back to me... quit holding my love for ransom do you need some more understanding are you asking or just demanding, you've made a hostage of my heart Oh, oh oh.

there's no guarantees on what were doing, but the road your on can lead to do it, i'll be your compass lead you back to the star cuz i'm not living in between pieces of a broken dream, there's so more of you i need, I LOVE YOU.

its criminal what you get from me..
give it back, give it back to me..
give it back, give it back, give it back to me...
do you need it...
