

Blade ready to die?
I was born ready mother fucker

Daywalker
Yo... yo...yo
It's the feast of the blood was in Unleash the beast within
I walk around with the strength of 100 men
You besta run before I count to ten
Blood drippin' from my k9 like a fountain pen
It seems that I've been asleep for a 1000 years
The way my world has changed it bring me 1000 tears
Prince of darkness that walks through the rays of light
To this beat of vampire of the prototype
The shape shifter mirrior image flash photo type
The everlasting indiginal red blato type

He was born perfect and just like the great white shark
This guy has never had to evolve

Daywalker
Try to do as my name that's fatal
Tried to claim my fame but that's fatal
About to bring the pain that's fatal
Bite through your jugular vain that's fatal

Daywalker
Come on walk with me
You're not immortal,
I must have heard hundrends of you rodents make the same claim
Each one of them tasted the end of my sword

I strike back with a vengeance
The father of decendents
And I can't be deflected by your silver cross pendants
Blow the holy water you make the false images
Must wait for the signal ahhhh your life damenishes
Sing like the scorpian
Strike with the force of ten
My blood is going to revatilize the corpse of men
And the last thing the sayed theyd never walk again
The blind, deaf and dark will talk again
Daywalker
