

Who Do You Think You Are?

S Club 7

We've been living a lie
We're not what we seem to be
And we've had enough of being fooled
And now we wanna be free

Yeah, we've been living a dream (somebody else's)
And now we wanna live ours
But we got to leave this game behind
To know who we really are

Don't let anyone take over your life (no no no)
Don't give up your dreams and you'll be alright (no no)
They think they can control you but they should have told you
When you're a clone, you know you're never alone

Who, who do you think you are?
Do you know for sure
Now tell me, who, who do you think you are?
Do you know for sure
Now tell me

Who do you think you are?
Who do you think you are?

We're ready for change
And we just want to come out
And it's up to you and me now, boy
Why are we waiting around

Feels like we're caught in a trap (somebody else's)
Maybe it's all in the mind
But we've gotta find away to leave all of this trouble behind

Don't let anyone take over your life (no no no)
Don't give up your dreams and you'll be alright (no no)
They think they can control you but they should have told you
When you're a clone, you know you're never alone

Who, who do you think you are?
Do you know for sure
Now tell me, who, who do you think you are?
Do you know for sure
Now tell me

Who, who do you think you are?
Do you know for sure
Now tell me, who, who do you think you are?
Do you know for sure
Now tell me

Just got to get, just got to get back
Just got to get, just got to get back on track
Just got to get, just got to get back
Just got to get, just got to get back on track

Who, who do you think you are?
Do you know for sure

Now tell me, who, who do you think you are?
Do you know for sure
Now tell me

Who, who do you think you are?
Do you know for sure
Now tell me, who, who do you think you are?
Do you know for sure
Now tell me
