

Makutsu / Den of Hades

Sabbat

Nations that open the gate of den, Fly over the violated mountains of spirit
Conquer the filled spring with pus, Evil forces! Invade peaceful nirvana
The damned roll of thunder without virtue, Crossing the released lightning
When the sword of glory mirrors the lusts, Obey the kings that ride hell's horses

Laughing at the hanged believers in a nightmare, Lewd Karitimo
Lustful beauty, wanton juice is running over, Drown in the dream of Fuzan
Demonic beast-child lives a brutal way, This evil way's reborn against virtue
Under the winds of a poison-flower's smell, Chant the cursed hate with evil law

Evil link, the highest, welcomed you, pray together, blazing spell of the oath
Feel the six deadly heavens in this hell,
The devils are screaming in between possessed your soul and soul
There is immortal vice, Here is the den of Hades

Crowding an evil tower that is built high, Servants under the hungry hell's lust
Plucking the wings of angles, Offer the bloody fresh heads at the Sabbath
Sacrifices were blown in profane winds, Carved by revealed destiny
Spit holy mother's ovary, Drink the squeezed holy Karyobinga's marrow

Evil link, the highest, welcomed you, pray together, blazing spell of the oath
Feel the six deadly heavens in this hell,
The devils are screaming in between possessed your soul and soul
There is immortal vice, Here is the den of Hades

Soul-fire melted into the devil's land, Torment! Fading the light of Buddha-sons
Call for the future of destruction, Going down! The opened darkness of this world
Evil forbidden souls begin to radiate
Fire to the Shinto shrines, Tiger-beast of evil power from the hell's north Bloody sign to intense fire of ruin, Bleed to the Styx with the death's axe-hammer

In the anthem of iconoclast

Black wings baptize the bleeding times, Poison winds shine on the beyond
Fire-king purifies you in infinite light, The evil's ride on the shadows of clouds
This world fades away in the new world to come, Our lust-world opens the souls
The true darkness stands with evil forces, We swear in the stormy doom
The god's kingdom is gone!!

Evil link, the highest, welcomed you, pray together, blazing spell of the oath
Feel the six deadly heavens in this hell,
The devils are screaming in between possessed your soul and soul
There is immortal vice, Here is the den of Hades
