

Standing Free

Sacred Warrior

Broken windows ... in my mind
Shattered dreams ... surround me
My days were numbered
Thoughts of suicide invade my mind
I couldn't stand it anymore
I wouldn't face reality
I'd sit and wonder, thinking of myself
I need someone
Then came the day, you took me by the hand
Hope filled my life, now I'm back to stay

I'm standing on my feet again
Not listening to my thoughts they've lied to me
I'm standing on my feet again, I'm standing free

How many times will this nightmare taunt me ?
I can't believe I almost said goodbye
Now face to face with my own destiny
Is this what I want to be a memory
Or live my life like it was meant to be

I'm standing on my feet again
Not listening to my thoughts they've lied to me
I'm standing on my feet again, I'm standing free

I got my back against the wall ...
Nobody can touch me ... no no
My desire to sabotage my existence
Came to an end when I finally realized
So many things in life accomplished
To let it end in a compromise
I'll choose to live and tell others of satan's lies

I'm standing on my feet again
Not listening to my thoughts they've lied to me
I'm standing on my feet again, I'm standing free
