

Frankie's First Affair

Sade

Frankie, didn't I tell you
You've got the world
In the palm of your hand
Frankie, didn't I tell you they're running
At your command
You know the tricks
As if they're your invention
It wasn't your intention
Frankie to fall in the trap you made

Oohh it's a crying shame, Mmm
You left a trail of destruction
Heart breaker you know now
They really did care cause it's your first affair

Frankie, didn't I tell you that the lion
Would come in for the kill
Frankie, didn't I say he had power
Over your sweet skill

So where is the laughter
You spat right in their faces
Didn't I tell you frankie
That you might run out of races

Oohh it's a crying shame, Mmm
You couldn't win the game
Heart breaker this time (this time)
It's your first affair

Frankie, frankies first affair (it's your turn to cry)
Frankie, frankies first affair
It's your turn to cry

It's a crying shame
Heartbreaker
You know now they really did care
Cause it's your first affair

Frankie, frankies first affair
Frankie, frankies first affair

wha da an dee da do, wha da an dee da do (It's your turn to cry it's your turn to cry) wha da an dee da do, wha da an dee da do
(It's your turn to cry it's your turn to cry)

Don't you realise they really really really did care
The parties over
Now you discover
It's your turn to cry

And don't you realise Ooh, it's the toughest thing, yes it is, yes it is The party's over, it's your turn to cry

wha da an dee da do, wha da an dee da do

Mmmmm

wha da an dee da do, wha da an dee da do
it's your first affair
