Escogido

Searching path knowledge Nothing but fear remains Walking thru' nonsense Where noone dares Clutching reality, naked divinity Escogido

To reach nowhere, a shadow A step away from my left side She follows me while she 's waiting Where have you gone Rationality and all my tidy Thoughts?

Snare of emotions Something's trying to get free Something's trying to get free Kicking out from my heart!

Escogido and afraid How can my first enemy Sweep away everything...like this?

[REPEAT 1st VERSE]

A way wiped out like this Defiled warrior in an unknown land Made out of dark presence&feelings A faultless path, and that fuckin fear In front and all around me Sadist
