Hell In Myself

Hell...

Strange visions into my mind Suffering of a life without sense Screams rebound in my void Life in the limbo of unreal Hell in myself is burning my brain again ...Why? ...again?

Who wants to destroy our hopes? Who wants to control our thoughts?

Hell...

Madness is entering my soul I can't escape from this trap Claustrophoby of existence Cage of power close my eyes

I'm alone against my breath

Silence breaks in the air, Lights tell me I'm alive Fear to live, no fear to die... But if the sun should die?
