

Smackdown

Sadus

You can't feel what I feel
Can't see what I see
Don't know what I know
You'll never be me, know me

SMACKDOWN

Why are you here? I have no fear
Show me what you hold so dear
I'll smash you, crush you, break you, burn you

SMACKDOWN

When you feel the meltdown
Then you start to breakdown

Show some respect, better come correct, can't eject
What did you expect, twist your neck
You come to face me, disgrace me

SMACKDOWN

Talk'n trash you wanna clash
I'll kick you mother fuckin 'ass
There's no way, it's not your day, so go away, that's what I say

SMACKDOWN

When you feel the meltdown
Then you start to breakdown
Now I lay the smack down

Stand down, I'll set you straight
Your weak take has no weight
No gift to communicate
No skill to articulate

SMACKDOWN

This is my show, you want to know
I'll show you where you need to go
I will throw down, take it down
Time for me to break you down

SMACKDOWN

When you feel the meltdown
Then you start to breakdown
Now I lay the smack down

What you've said can't be undone
It was over before you begun
You have lost and I have won
The record shows - you got run

When you feel the meltdown
Then you start to breakdown
Now I lay the smack down
