Annie

SafetySuit

There was a girl named Annie She had a very pretty face And not the way you would think so Let me see if I can try to explain it

She had a smile, it could light up a room And if she moved, it'd be movin' in you But she wasn't like a magazine She was just plain Jane and her name was Annie

She never looked in the mirror She never liked what she would see And even if I tried to tell her She never listened to a word I'd say

She always wanted what she never had But never had what she needed so badly Someone tellin' her she was fine And that's not right and it's why I'm sayin'

Annie, don't be shy here Annie, don't just lie there Looks don't make the world go 'round But it comes around

And Annie, don't be shy here Annie, please don't cry here I always have to stop myself 'Cause you're beautiful

I didn't know if I could tell her I didn't know if I could make her see She didn't need to find her beauty She didn't need to find a way to show me

They took her moments of feelin' alive And made them moments of dyin' inside She needed someone to scream her name To take her pain and it's why I screamin'

Annie, don't be shy here Annie, don't just lie there Looks don't make the world go 'round But it comes around

And Annie, don't be shy here Annie, please don't cry here I always have to stop myself 'Cause you're beautiful

And Annie, you are the one sight My eyes never tire of It's like I cannot get enough of you Annie, you are the one song left in my symphony Like you were made for me

Annie, don't be shy here

Annie, don't just lie there Looks don't make the world go 'round But it comes around

And Annie, don't be shy here Annie, please don't cry here I always have to stop myself 'Cause you're beautiful

And Annie, don't be shy here Annie, don't just lie there Looks don't make the world go 'round But it comes around

And Annie, don't be shy here Annie, please don't cry here I always have to stop myself Have to stop myself, have to stop myself

'Cause you're beautiful
'Cause you're beautiful
