

One Time

SafetySuit

I used to think I deserved everything in this world there could be
Then I met you and you brought me down it was like a disease
I loved you so much that I couldn't see what you're doing to me
And now left alone with you
Should've known better 'cause

One time should've been enough for me, fine
I guess I couldn't see through your lies
You're making me believe but then you go and do it again

This time I don't wanna hear the one line
And I don't really care that you're fine
You're making me believe but then you go and do it again

I never asked for much from you
I didn't need your stories
'Cause when you'd hold me like you do
I would forget you're lonely

And I don't need to know your thoughts
Don't need to know your questions too
Cause when you hold me like you do oh
I should've known better

Cause one time should've been enough for me...
Fine I guess I couldn't see through your lies
You're making me believe but then you go and do it again

This time I don't wanna hear the one line
And I don't really care that you're fine
You're making me believe but then you go and do it again

Don't wanna come and ask for you to come and love me like you should
You should've seen this coming for a long time for a long time

Don't wanna come and ask for you
to come and love me like you should
You should've seen this coming for a long time for a long time
I should've known better cause

One time should've been enough for me...fine
I guess I couldn't see through your lies
You're making me believe but then you go and do it again

This time I don't wanna hear the one line
And I don't really care that you're fine
You should've known better than this

You should've known better.
